

Controls.

Refer to the visualization document.

The parameters will be input before starting the simulation

The buttons below the screen will help to control the simulation. They will start, pause, resume, and end the simulation. Refer to the visualization document for more information