

Left top box:

The left top box is meant to hold the information concerning the Landing vessel.

Things like Speed, Height from the asteroid, Velocity, etc.... the variables that are changing

Left bottom box:

Constant variables. Weight, etc....

Screen:

Displays the simulation

Buttons under the screen:

Start the sim, starting the simulation once the parameters are inputted

Stop the sim, stops or freezes the simulation

Resume the sim, resumes the simulation from the point it was at.

End the sim, cancels everything and sets it to 0 to have the parameters reset.